

Development for leaders and teams

We challenge and encourage you to develop a leadership style and business culture that builds both results and relationships.

We work with leaders who are ready to be transformed and developed by our holistic way of doing business; leaders who want to lead their teams with authenticity and create a positive culture that delivers business results.

“Working with Brightlife is the best money I have ever spent on team development.”

Rick Hamilton, Vice President Services, Cisco

History and Key Facts

Brightlife was founded in 2006 with a simple mission: to improve people's experience of being at work. We've experienced radical expansion and global success because of the core values that inform our culture and approach.

Today we work with an enviable range of blue chip global clients and our team is based in the UK and the west coast of the USA. We support a wide range of industries and have particular depth of experience within the technology, financial and aviation sectors.

How we work

We believe that people matter – and that personal leadership is critical to the accomplishment of more than just bottom-line results. We work with leaders who are ready to be challenged and developed by our holistic way of doing business.

We help leaders and their teams lead with authenticity and create a positive culture that delivers business results. In today's fast-paced and ever-changing environment, principled leadership, clarity of purpose, and exceptional communication skills have never been more important.

Here are some of the core values that we are committed to as people and as a business:

- Care, commitment, and loyalty.
- Focus on results that matter.
- Working collaboratively.
- Activating collective intelligence.
- Thinking and acting holistically and with integrity.

Who we are

We are a community of consultants with industry-leading knowledge and a track record of delivering results. Between us we have:

- Over 150 years of combined experience as consultants.
- Relevant industry experience in HR, L&D, finance, law, government, the armed forces, technology, engineering, healthcare and more.
- Fluency in multiple languages alongside diverse cultural experience.
- Total integrity for practicing what we preach.
- Passion for developing people to achieve their potential.
